THE PICTURESQUE COURSE OF THE JOCKEY CLUB JUAREZ

THE JUAREZ RACE TRACK.

It is doubtful if any American race course has a more picturesque setting than the Jockey Club Juarez track, where a winter meeting of 100 days' duration is now going on. The patrons of Juarez racing this winter include many who never before visited that locality and to them the magnitude and natural beauty of the Juarez racing plant has been at once a revelation and a delight. The course, as will be seen by reference to the accompanying cut, has some imposing hills for a background. It was constructed in 1909, on an elaborate and ambitious plan and has since been improved and beautified on occasion seemed to demand. Its buildings are of concrete and therefore of greater permanency than the edifices at most race tracks. The architecture conforms to the style in vogue in the great southwest and, altogether, it may be said that the Juarez racing plant is both inviting and impressive.

STAKE SUCCESSES OF THE LEADING AMERICAN STABLE

One potent factor in giving John W. Schorr the gratifying position of leader of American owners of the year 1912 was the signal success of his horses in stake races offered by the various Canadian racing organizations. Outside of the Anne Arundel Selling Stakes at Laurel every stake race won by his horses was a Canadian event, of which Edda won six, Star Charter four, Froglegs two and the good two-year-old, Leochares, five. The list of events so won was as follows:

J. L. HOLLAND'S BIG BAND OF RACERS

Considering that twenty-two horses raced in the colors of J. L. Holland in 1912 it cannot be said that a return of $12,026 in stable earnings was any more than adequate to defray stable expenses and perhaps was not sufficient to do that. Of the ten two-year-olds started Insurance Man is the only one that did anything effective and he proved the stable's best money winner and a useful young horse. The veterans, Donald Macdonald and Hilarious, ran some good races and, besides Insurance Man, were the only other winners of $1,000 or more. In one way and another the majority of the horses that figure in the stable's list were passed on into other ownerships in the course of the season's racing, the stable record being:

AMERICAN WINNINGS IN AUSTRALIA.

Lexington, Ky., January 14.—Mr. A. Robertson, of Mentone, Australia, writes as follows, under date of December 13, to Messrs. Walker & Treacy: "Just a few lines to let you know I am still in the land of the living, and my thoughts sometimes turn to Kentucky. The thoroughbred yearlings that I got from you and brought down in the first shipment are making good. We won with two of them this week. Other winners are: Dewberry, by Oddfellow—Rhums; Virgine, by Oddfellow—Virginia Lee; Petronelle, by Oddfellow—Pepita; Odell, by Oddfellow—Balzane. These fillies have probably won ten or more races. Yesterday we won with Upright, a filly by Standing—Reality. She is speedy. The bunch of youngsters I got from John E. Madden last year have just gone into work, and I hope to give you a good report of them later. The three stallions are all doing full seasons. A few weeks ago I landed here a shipment from England. Dr. Leach also landed a few mares, most of which he has sold. Racing is just booming in this country."

LONG SHOTS TO THE FORE

HORSES QUOTED AT LIBERAL ODDS ACCOUNT FOR HALF THE CARD AT JUAREZ.

Odella Beats a Useful Lot at Odds of 20 to 1—Gladys Y. Wins at First Asking for W. E.
Applegate—Two Favorites Score.

El Paso, Tex., January 14.—Balmy weather helped to attract to Juarez today one of the largest racing crowds of the season. The card was accounted for by three long shots, two favorites and a second choice. Odella, from the stable of Benson & Pierce, won the third race from a fairly good band of sprinters at the long odds of 20 to 1. Gladys Y., starting for the first time, carried the colors of W. E. Applegate to victory in the opening dash and showed herself to be a promising filly. She was outpaced for the first eighth by several others, but obtained the lead a hundred yards from the finish, and withstood Super's challenge handsly. Sepulveda was the other winner at good odds.

Orbed Lad, heavily backed by the public, took the final race of the day by leading his field from start to finish.

J. P. Atkin will sell his entire stable in the paddock next Saturday. He has been heavily interested in several California baseball clubs and owns the controlling stock in the Sacramento club.

Jockey J. Murphy, the colored rider who was suspended by the Juarez stewards two years ago, has been reinstated. Murphy was suspended for several bad rides, notably one on Harrigan, which was beaten by Spohn, owned by W. T. Anderson. Harrigan was the favorite at 7 to 10. A large sum was bet on Spohn in the handicaps. A few days later Harrigan beat a much better opposition, including Polls, injury and others, running a mile in 1:37 and reducing the track record. Murphy was under contract to Dr. I. E. Clark at the time of his suspension.

Jockey Gargan was suspended for five days by starter Cassidy.

J. J. Troxler's mare Miss Korn, which was taken ill quite suddenly yesterday, died last night. The peculiar symptoms exhibited induced the belief that she had been poisoned, in consequence of which the board of stewards ordered the track veterinarian, Dr. Cann, to hold a post-mortem examination and report his finding. Dr. Cann reported today that after a careful analysis he could find no traces of poisoning, but that the mare had succumbed to a violent attack of spinal meningitis.

John Lewis joined the bookmakers today. The layers all report a large volume of money in sight at all times. The majority of the bookmakers here are losers to a considerable extent.

Among this morning's work-outs were the following:

Adelaide T.—Three-quarters in 1:15, handily.
Adolante—Three-quarters in 1:5, handily.
Amelia B.—Three-eighths in 38.
Calisse—Five-eighths in 1:04, breezing.
Campeon—Three-quarters in 1:13, Is good.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. L. McGinnis has sold Monty Fox to W. Jackson.

Superman has been shipped from Kingston Stud to his new home in New Jersey.

The horses of H. C. Hallebeck are wintering well at their owner's farm near Red Bank, N. J.

Howard Oots will take up his horses about February 1. They have been turned out on the farm.

W. L. Oliver has purchased from Mode Nicoll the black gelding Lord Leighton, 4, by Cesarion—Fonsolette.

W. O. Farmer, of Nashville, Tenn., has booked six mares to Cyclades, by Cyllene, the leading stallion of England.

The chestnut colt by Meelick—Floreal, which Fletcher Driver recently sold to J. Tandy Hughes, has been named Captain Jacobs.

There will be ten days mixed racing in 1913 at the Exposition Grounds, Edmonton, Alberta. Two harness and four running races will be given each day.

A. B. Lowe has taken up Miss Thorpe from John D. Carr's farm near Lexington, where she has been running out since the Latonia meeting. She looks well.

Secretary Garrett D. Wilson of the Kentucky Association thinks that the total eligibles for the 1913 Breeders' Futurity will reach eighty, which will represent a high water mark for the third payment. Last year's Futurity had seventy-five third payments. It is estimated that with twelve starters the Futurity of 1913 will be worth $8,530. Its highest value heretofore has been $4,848.

CONEY ISLAND DIRECTORS ELECTED.

New York, January 14.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Coney Island Jockey Club yesterday the following directors were elected: Schuyler L. Parsons, W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Harold F. Vanderbilt, James W. Wadsworth, George Peabody Wetmore, F. K. Sturges, John M. Powers, V. E. Schaumburg, F. T. Clarke, F. J. Griswold, F. R. Hitchcock, Thomas Hitchcock and Herbert C. Pell.

While the members, because of the recent decision in the Paul Shane case, are hopeful over the prospects for racing this season, still no action of a definite character will be made until the Appellate division of the Circuit court hands down its decision. After Justice Scudder had ordered Shane released the case was carried to a higher court. The decision is expected any day.

As the race tracks decide to reopen, the meetings will be of short duration, not more than three or four days each week.

Nassau County, handed down a decision in the case of October 13, 1912, which was highly approved of by United States Army officials and horsemen throughout the length and breadth of the land.The exodus of the best thoroughbred and standard bred horses from America in the last few years has alarmed army officers to a considerable extent. Investigation has proved the vast superiority of the army mounts in Great Britain and the countries of continental Europe over the horses in the service of the United States. The thoroughbred establishments of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, Missouri, California and other states in the union were in many instances wiped out when the directors' liability bill became effective in this state September 1, 1910.Men of prominence interested in the thoroughbred have submitted Justice Scudder's interpretation of the law in this case to eminent lawyers and they have been reassured time and time again that the decision of the justice was correct and wise.That Justice Scudder's decision will be upheld in the Appellate Division is considered an absolute certainty by several lawyers thoroughly conversant with the statutes covering this particular case.Paul Shane was arrested on June 6, 1912, charged with bookmaking at the Belmont Park Terminal.Racing Association at Belmont Park Terminal. He was held for examination by Justice of the Peace Charles F. Gittins of Hempstead, L. I.Before his case was called Surrogate John J.
Graham, counsel for the defendant, obtained a writ of habeas corpus which was made returnable immediately before Justice Scudder. The question was of paramount importance for the reason that it involved not only the directors of the United Hunts Racing Association but also the directors of the Belmont Park Terminal Racing Association, the owners and lessors of the property.In trying to get at the intent of the legislature Justice Scudder cited the Lambright case, in which Justice Cullen interpreted section 986 before its amendment as being aimed at public gambling, professional gamblers and the maintenance of gambling houses, which alone have been subject to the penalties of the criminal law.Shane was not charged with public gambling, but it was alleged that he "did privately make several bets."The information also failed to allege that Shane was one "who engaged" in making bets—the words used in the statute—which imports a continuity of practice. That court held that engaging in bookmaking is betting, but ordinary betting on a horse race is not a crime."The legislature has not made it a crime to bet on horse races and the court is powerless to do so," the decision ran.As to the personal liability of the directors of a racing association the court agreed with the district attorney that the directors' liability law requires knowledge of the acts constituting the crime on the part of the persons accused, and concludes:"The law will not permit the conviction of the owner of a race track who has no knowledge of the fact that bookmaking (not ordinary betting) is going on upon his premises."

ENGLAND'S THREE-YEAR-OLDS OF 1912.

As for the racing during the past year, it is scarcely possible to wax enthusiastic about the performances of the three-year-olds. There can be little doubt that Tracery was out and away the best of them. Twelve months ago this son of Rock Sand was so badly crippled by a mysterious swelling on one of his hocks that nothing seemed more likely than that he would never take part in a race.The greatest credit is due to his trainer, Watson, for the patience and skill he displayed in the treatment of the "cripple." The Derby was the first race in which Tracery ran. Had it been possible to "open his eyes" in a smaller event prior to the Epsom meeting, it might have been granted that he would have beaten Tagale and Jaeger, instead of finishing behind them. The manner in which Tracery won the St. Leger proved him to be a good horse, and if there had been a three-year-old handicap framed last autumn, we should have found Tracery among the top performers.That being so, the less said about the latter the better.There was a peculiar international "flavor" about the classic races of 1912. The Two Thousand Guineas winner, Sweeper II., is by the American sire Broomstick.He, however, foaled in France, but Maher, an American jockey, rode him to victory over the Rowley Mile. Tagale, winner of the One Thousand Guineas and the Derby, is out of the French-bred mare Tagale. In the Guineas she was ridden by John Reiff, an American domiciled in France.Mirka, winner of the Oaks, though bred and trained in England, belongs to a Frenchman, and was ridden by Childs, an Anglo-French jockey. Tracery is owned by an American, was bred in America, is by an English horse out of an English mare, is trained in England, and was ridden to victory at Doncaster by Bellhouse, who, though born at Birmingham, has done all his riding in France. Never before has there been so strange a "mixture" as this.

What would Admiral Rous have had to say about it all?

In the year that has just dawned we shall probably see things more flattering to our insular pride, or I take it that the satisfaction will allow us to share in the satisfaction of the Irishmen, the anti-imperial achievements of Craganour and Shogun, both of which were bred in the Green Isle, though the former went as a foal to the racing pastures at Sledmere. These are two high-class colts. Craganour has, indeed, only to develop on normal lines in order to rank with famous horses.—London Sporting Life.

THE ORIGINAL "DARK HORSE."

The political term "dark horse" is believed to have had its origin in these circumstances:In the last century there lived in Tennessee a "character" named Flynn, an elderly person who dealt in horses. Flynn generally contrived to own a speedy nag or two for racing purposes. If he considered a horse "good" during his peregrinations throughout the state.The best of Flynn's fliers was a coal black stallion named Dusky Pete, almost a thoroughbred and able to go in the best of company. One day Flynn visited a town where a race meeting was in progress. He entered Pete. The people knowing nothing of the horse's antecedents, and not being impressed by his appearance, backed the local favorite heavily against the stranger.Just as the horses were being saddled for the race, a certain Judge McMinamee, who was the "oracle" of that part of the state, arrived on the course and was made one of the race judges. As he took his place on the stand he was told of the folly of the owner of the strange entry. Running his eye over the race track, the Judge instantly recognized Pete."Gentleman," said McMinamee, "there's a dark horse in this race, as you'll soon find out."He was right. Pete, "the dark horse," lay back until the three-quarter post was reached, when he went to the front with a rush and won the race.—Springfield Republican.

STATISTICS OF ITALIAN TURF.

The best campaign on the Italian turf appears to have been a fruitful one and to offer a proof that individual enterprise in the world of sport brings its own reward. The stable racing under the name of "Sir Rhofand" stands at the head of the list of winning owners with nearly $104,750 to his credit, defeating the Bessante stud, which held first position at the end of the preceding season. The considerable success of the stable, Messrs. Chimeil and Da Zara, who, with Mr. Tesio, conclude the quintet, that have been able to claim over $20,000. The most extensive stable, so far as horses having run is concerned, was that of "Sir Rhofand," with forty-seven representatives. Prince Trivulzio, who has established in the province of Como the Omate stud, has won with three representatives $6,600. He has increased his ownership by several judicious purchases and will no doubt have secured a more prominent position on the list of winning owners at the end of the season of 1913. At the head of the list of winning jockeys stands J. E. Davis with seventy-one winning mounts, with Doumen second with seventy.
